“A Newsletter is like a mirror that reflects the clear picture of all sorts of activities undertaken by a Department and develops writing skills among the students in particular and teaching faculty in general. We aspire that this very first edition of the newsletter of the department of commerce and management will provoke massive prosperity & fortune for LNCT College. The vast spectrum of meticulous articles in different sections will bestow our readers' plenty of informative news. Each article would be enlightening, educative & inspirational blended with captivating infographics & silhouettes as well as pretentious portraits. We applaud the contributors & for their stimulated thoughts and varied hues in articles contributed by them. A remarkable initiative is being executed by Hon'ble Prof. Arvind Singh, Director (Department of Management & Commerce) in strategising for and developing the Newsletter. Our congratulations are to the team who took the responsibility for the arduous task most effectively. A Message From The Editorial

“Hello, Readers,

If you are reading this, it means you are just about to discover the most appealing flavours of Lncian cuisine! Yes! We present our college newsletter in the form of a flavoursome exotic cuisine created with lots of enthusiasm and whole-hearted efforts. The success of every recipe lies in its ingredients and so does ours. The choicest ingredients for this preparation have come from the Indian ground is the hard work inserted by the Lncians during September 2020 to December 2021. First of all, there are two flavors in which we present our dish. The two portions of the newsletter i.e., Events and Competitions held in the college add colour to it. The species used are the articles in the newsletter is written by the students with great zeal and labour. All this has been mixed and cooked on the right flame and now served to you with adequate garnishing. A whole team of chefs was involved in this onerous task, and our director sir, who is our mentor and guide during the selection of species. Our faculty members also played the role of a great taster before serving. At last, the credit goes to all our fellow-mates who provided us with some hidden ingredients. We thank all of them. The dish is now presented to you for tasting. The students editorial board sincerely hopes that the recipe satisfies your taste. Have a happy reading.”
