

Orientation Program – 2K23

21st, 22nd and 23rd September 2023 (Slot wise for different Courses)

Objectives of the Program: The Orientation program is aimed at familiarizing the students with our state-of-the-art LNCT campus, its rich intellectual capital and Infrastructure. It initiates them into the culture of academic excellence and research, which is an inherent part of the LNCT Group. The Orientation program facilitates the settling of new students and prepares them for life at LNCT. During this program, students will:

- Get introduced to senior Management team and will understand the vision of LNCT Group
- Begin a lifelong relationship with faculty mentors & Connect with fellow classmates
- Learn about LNCT's academic processes and environment-friendly practices
- Discover the salient features of LNCT, including THE LNCT EDGE and legacy, Discipline in campus, Quality Education, Innovation and research Initiatives, Industry Collaborations, Sports facilities, NCC/NSS/Naval wings, Incubation Center, Various Technical and Co-Curricular clubs, Various Student Chapters and more.

Do's during the Orientation program:

- Timings: Kindly plan your travel so that you don't have to leave the program in between. Have some extra hours so that you can complete and then do your other works. You are not allowed to leave the program in between. Once you are inside the program venue then you are supposed to go out after completing the program only.
- Engage Actively: Participate wholeheartedly in all scheduled activities and sessions. Engage with faculty, mentors, and fellow students to make the most of your orientation experience.
- Ask Questions: Don't hesitate to ask questions or seek clarification on any aspect of college life, academics, or campus facilities. Our staff and faculty are here to assist you.
- Build Relationships: Use this opportunity to build meaningful relationships with your peers and faculty mentors. Networking and forming connections can enrich your college experience.
- Be Open-Minded: Approach new experiences with an open mind. College is a time for growth and exploration, so embrace diversity and different perspectives.
- Explore Campus Resources: Familiarize yourself with campus resources, including libraries, research centers, and extracurricular clubs. These can greatly enhance your academic and personal development.
- Student's Kit: You will be provided with the Student Kit in which your academic calendar is also kept with other materials. You have to strictly follow your academic calendar. Book Bank dates are fixed and if you miss it you will not be provided with books. You are supposed to show the seriousness towards your studies.

Don'ts during the Orientation Program:

- Don't Skip Sessions: Avoid skipping any orientation sessions or activities. Each session is designed to provide valuable information and insights that will benefit your college journey.
- Don't Be Afraid to Seek Help: If you encounter challenges or need assistance, don't hesitate to seek help from our support staff, mentors, or counselors. We are here to support you.
- Don't Rush: Take your time to settle into college life. Don't rush into making major decisions. Use the orientation period to gather information and make informed choices.
- Don't Isolate Yourself: College is about social interaction and personal growth. Avoid isolating yourself; instead, engage with your peers, seniors, and mentors to create a supportive network.

- Don't Disregard College Policies: Familiarize yourself with college policies, including academic and conduct guidelines. Adhering to these policies is essential for a successful college experience.
- Don't throw garbage: LNCT is now your campus and you are responsible to keep it clean and green. Don't throw any garbage or pluck flowers or any other thing which makes it dirty.
