I am Abhishek Sharma, an alumnus of LNCT College, Bhopal, from the batch of 2011-2015, where I pursued my Bachelor's degree in Civil Engineering. My journey at LNCT College has been nothing short of transformative, shaping me into the person I am today.

LNCT provided me with an excellent academic foundation. The dedicated faculty members not only imparted knowledge but also instilled a passion for innovation and problem-solving in the field of civil engineering and life in general.
